✨ Feeling like an author today!

My book on AI (Artificial Intelligence), in Marathi, called "AI-Rupe", was reviewed-featured in the "Swagat Navya Pustakanche" (Welcome to New Publications) column of Sakal newspaper today 📰. Sharing a few pictures below.

Another thoughtful review by YOGESH KHAIRNAR is available at: <https://lnkd.in/dEWds7hE>

I am deeply grateful to those who reached out with kind words and encouragement over calls and messages 🙏.

If you have already read the book, I would love to see your reviews and comments here on LinkedIn, on Amazon, or wherever you purchased it.

For those who follow Marathi and are interested in Artificial Intelligence, here are the purchase links:

Btw, most of the articles are also available to read on my Medium publication 'Desi Stack', free to read if you are member there 😊. Also, the book is quite concise (84 pages) so the soft copy might be a better option than hardcover 😊.

If you know someone deserving who should receive a free copy, please share their details with me at yogeshkulkarni [at] yahoo [dot] com. I will be happy to gift it.

My wish is to make this book reach a wider audience in Maharashtra. If any individual or organization with a CSR budget wishes to bulk order copies as gifts for teachers, social workers, or volunteers during
