Mauro F. Guillén | 2030: How Today’s Biggest Trends Will Collide [...] | Talks at Google (YouTube 58 mins)

Jottings

- Theme: Trends for the next decade
- May be 2028!! acceleration due to pandemic.
- Center of population is going to shift: from east to south Asia, Europe to Africa
- Young population: China down, India up, US as is. US young would be minorities.
- Old population: largest market almost everywhere. New tech for them!!
- Immigration for elderly-care being restricted, tech is needed.
- Robotics for home, assistive, companionship
- Financial abuse of elderly, mostly by known folks.
