🎙️ Wish to share my new podcast episode: "The Art of Reinvention" hosted by SEAP Pune 🚀

In this conversation, we cover my professional journey from engineering design software development to becoming an AI advisor 💡

🎧 We explore:

✅ What it really takes to reset your career, again and again

✅ How GenAI is redefining not just tech, but many other domains

✅ Why Indian languages must play a central role in AI development

✅ My philosophy on lifelong learning and staying curious

You'll also hear about:

⚙️ The MidcurveNN project, which combines neural networks with geometry

📜 Legal text mining, transitioning from rule-based models to GenAI

📚 AI Rupe, my Marathi book that brings AI concepts closer to native readers

Whether you're a developer, educator, policymaker, or simply someone passionate about tech with purpose, I hope this episode sparks your curiosity and offers a fresh perspective on the art of reinvention.
